

EMPOWER YOUTH ENTREPRENEURS. BE A BUILD MENTOR.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP IS THE HOOK. COLLEGE IS THE GOAL.

Volunteer as a BUILD mentor. Support high school students in under-resourced communities as they launch their very own businesses. You will work alongside a co-mentor to coach your student team through design ideation, prototyping, pitching to funders, marketing and selling their final product. Help BUILD students learn the fundamentals of business and critical 21st century skills while connecting with like-minded, passionate professionals in your community.

BUILD provides the training and curriculum. You bring the spark that helps ignite the potential of our youth.

WHERE? Bay Area (Oakland + Peninsula), Boston, Metro DC, NYC. And soon Los Angeles!

WHEN? Two hours, one evening per week

HOW? Apply now to be a mentor this school year!

www.build.org/volunteer/mentor/apply

Through entrepreneurship-based experiential learning, BUILD ignites the potential of youth in under-resourced communities and equips them for high school, college and career success.

Entrepreneurship is the hook. College is the goal. For more information, please visit www.build.org.